

The Tragedy at Disney World

By Kayla Nguyen

Now let me tell you a story that happened at Disney world. OK enough with the chit chat lets get started. So it all started one day when Kayla was walking and she saw something shining in the distance, she zoomed like a racing car to see what it was. Since Kayla was 5 she always wanted to go to Disney World. Then when she got to the shining thing. She couldn't believe what she saw. Kayla thought it was all a dream.

She rubbed her eyes and she wished that it all wasn't real. she opened her eyes and it all wasn't a dream it was real. She picked up the disney tickets and raced back home. when she got home she called Elly straight away and said

"Would you like to go to disney world with me elly!" Elly screamed "YES PLEASE!". Then Elly hung up the phone took out her suit case and started packing. She stayed up all night because she was too excited that she could actually go to America with Kayla.

The next morning Elly dragged her bags to Kayla's house so they could drive to the airport. In the next few hours they were on the plane to America.

That next morning Elly and Kayla were in their hotel room getting ready for Disney World. Then they got into the taxi and told the taxi driver "Next stop Disney World!". It took an hour to get to Disney World, so when the girls arrived. The girls couldn't choose what to do first. They gave the tickets to people and went through Elly saw the big giant ferris wheel and bolted to get in to the line. The ferris wheel wasn't working properly but the boss whispered into the worker's ear and said

"Just keep people go on it'll be fine". Elly got on the ferris wheel and the ferris wheel got stuck when she got to the top. Everyone was screaming and didn't know what to do.

The boss called the fire fighters and the police to make sure everything was ok. Kayla was getting worried. Then the firefighters used their very tall ladder and saved Elly from the ferris wheel. Then everyone else got saved from the ferris wheel. "I don't think we're ever coming here again," Kayla jokingly said, "Done and dusted" Elly mentioned and the girls laughed all the way home.
