The Town Of Crazyville

By Francesco

"Today is the day they announce who was going into the Scary, Daring and Spooky mansion of Crazyville" Lily said. "Oh I forgot to introduce myself, I'm Lilliana Rawlinson but call me Lily. I live with my mum and two annoying brothers. My dad died when I was three so I didn't see him. As I was saying, today is the day they announce who was going into the Scary, Daring and Spooky mansion of Crazyville. I live in Crazyville. Three kids go in to fight for their lives against zombies and vampires. Not everyone survives..."

"I hope it's not me" said Jackson in a scared sort of voice.

"It probably isn't" said Pete trying to calm Jackson down. Jackson is 10 so it is his first year of him having his name put down because the age is 10-14. Lily and Pete have had their name put in the hat, Lily is 12 so two times and Pete is 13 so three times.

That afternoon, all of the children in Crazyville that are between 10 and 14 have to go to the town square to see who was to fight. There are 30 kids in Crazyville and 20 of them are in between 10 and 14. As they were walking the mum cried and said "please don't be my kids, please not them" and was in lots of tears.

"It's alright mum, if it is one or more of us we will fight for you" said Pete calming her down.

When they got there, the Mayor, Mayor Chesterfield was on a stage right in the middle.

"Hello to all the people of Crazyville, as you all know I am announcing who will fight in the Scary, Daring and Spooky mansion of Crazyville. The 1st child to enter is Lilliana Rawlinson aged 12, Pete Rawlinson who is 13 and Jackson Rawlinson who is 10. Ah, what a coincidence, siblings." "

"NO!!!!!!!!!!!!!" their mum wailed.

"Mum, it's ok we can do this" Lily sobbed.

"Could you all come up?" the mayor asked. They all went up on the stage. The mansion door opened, they caught a glimpse of what it looked like inside.

"Enter" said the mayor as he did a pointing gesture towards the door. They did...

When they entered, the door slammed shut and locked. "I'm scared" said Jackson

"SHHH!" Pete angrily told Jackson.

“Begin!” yelled Mayor Chesterfield for the corner of the room. They all started with 1 torch each. Lilly pointed her torch from where the sound came from. There was a microphone. They were fighting with the torch, blinding the and them knocking them out. “We need to find something to kill them with because they will wake up soon” Lilly commanded. They found knives on the bench and killed the enemy.

Lilly ran down a long hall while being chased by a vampire. She stopped and blinded the vampire so that gave her time to lock herself in an empty room. the only thing in the room was a box that was in the top left hand corner of the room and a ladder. She thought, “I can get the box with the ladder?” so she got the ladder and got the box. The box dropped on the floor. Lilly got off the ladder and saw the box. It said The grand secret prize open this with a knife that is on the bench. She cut it open and, lying right in front of her was 2 golden pistols with 600 mags of ammo and 2 straps that you put on to hold ammo mags in. “whoa!” Lilly exclaimed. She ran out of the room, shot everything in her way and then she saw the saddest thing. Pete, her older was dead...

She ran to him. Jackson was crying “He got bitten by a zombie so I had to shoot him because he nearly bit me”

“Its ok” Lilly cried.

“He would want us to fight and win, so lets GET THAT KEY!” Yelled Lilly “Oh, and here have this gun and ammo holder”. She slid the pistol to Jackson and the ammo holder. He was amazed.

They found the zombie with the key and Lilly said, “The key is in his pants, I will boost you up while you shoot his head, I will defend.”

“OK, Lets do this already!” yelled Jackson.

“Yay, I did it!” They got the key and Jackson unlocked the door while Lilly dragged Pete out. The crowd cheered and their mum ran to them and hugged them tightly,

“You’re alive!” the mum hugged and kissed her kids,

“Ummmmm, Pete died. Lily told her mum

“NOOOOOOOOO!!!”

“You found the key and grand prize Therefore nobody needs to fight anymore!” The Mayor said. They all cheered.

1 month later it was Pete’s funeral. They all cried and the town was called Vineyville. They all lived happily ever after. The end
